Readings: Sunday 14th February

2 Corinthians 4.3-6

<sup>3</sup>And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. <sup>4</sup>In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. <sup>5</sup>For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Mark 9.2-9

The Transfiguration

<sup>2</sup> Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, <sup>3</sup>and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. <sup>4</sup>And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' <sup>6</sup>He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. <sup>7</sup>Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' <sup>8</sup>Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

The Coming of Elijah

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Sad News in the Benefice: Angela Lloyd-Jones

It is with sadness that we tell of the death of Angela Lloyd-Jones, following a severe stroke. Angela, together with Alan Pickett, her partner of 30 years, was a faithful worshipper at St George's. We shall greatly miss seeing them together week by week at the 8 o'clock service. Her funeral, attended only by family, will take place in church on 15 February, followed by the burial of ashes.

Please remember Alan and all Angela's family in your prayers.

Revd Rosemary

PASTORAL: The idea of Revd Ylva and myself being available, in our churches, for a chat or prayer time together has not worked; we have had no "visitors" in the three weeks we've been at church. So we have stopped this and will look to try something else.... watch this space! In the meantime, if you want a chat, please pick up the phone and call us. Revd David.

LENT COURSE 2021

Lent Meditations with Julian of Norwich

Our five week Lent course will take place via Zoom on
Tuesdays at 7:30 pm, starting on 23rd February

The course will be available via Zoom. If you would like to take part please email rev.ylva@gmail.com so that you can be sent the relevant material each week. Resources will also be posted on the website and Facebook pages. The first week's information is as follows:

Lent Meditations with Julian of Norwich – Week 1 (Tuesday 23 February)

Julian, a very short introduction

1. Julian's statue, Norwich Cathedral

Very short, because we really know very little about the woman behind the book. Julian of Norwich was an English mystic and spiritual writer in the 1400's. She was a lay woman who became an anchoress, a type of Religious person in the Middle Ages, and lived in a cell attached to St Julian's Church in Norwich; hence the name under which she is known. Hers was the first book in English written by a woman, Revelations of Divine Love, an account of a series of 16 visions of Christ that she received when at death's door with a very serious illness at the age of 30 in May 1373. After recovering, she spent the rest of her life pondering what she had experienced and writing up what she understood their message to be. Her writing is very moving, always so direct and rooted in everyday life and with unique turns of phrase, which make us feel that here speaks a real person to us over these many centuries. Her insights into the heart of Christ's passion and its significance for all are very deep and keep on giving, the more we engage with them.

Julian's book was almost forgotten over many hundreds of years, only preserved in a few manuscripts in the libraries of some Benedictine and Briggittine nuns, to be rediscovered in the early 1900's. Since then, her influence has grown and grown, as her unique insights into Jesus Christ and his love for us resonate with our own time and our yearning for hope and love and friendship with God.

For those of you who are intrigued by this fascinating writer, there are many good books to delve into. At the bottom of this sheet are a few suggestions, and I can point you to even more, should this whet your appetite.

But this Lent course is not a teaching opportunity, but an invitation for you to experience something of that contemplation, which Julian did so much of in her cell, and to connect with God through her writing. I will read a short extract from her book and then we will enter into silence together for 15 minutes. At the end I will bring us all together by reading the last sentence again. We will start with a short meditation that Julian herself was given as a vision at the start of her 'revelations':

“Then he showed me a small thing, the size of a hazelnut, nestled in the palm of my hand. It was round as a ball. I looked at it with the eyes of my understanding and thought, What can this be? And the answer came to me: It is all that is created. I was amazed that it could continue to exist. It seemed to me to be so little that it was on the verge of dissolving into nothingness. And then these words entered my understanding: It lasts, and it will last forever, because God loves it. Everything that is has its being through the love of God.” (Chapter 5)

Our churches remain open for individual private prayer.
However, communal worship has moved on-line until further notice.

Until our churches reopen:

- We will record a service and make it available, on-line, every Sunday morning.
Fellowship follows, with coffee, on Zoom after the service.

- The parish churches remain open for individual private prayer seven days a week

- St. George's church will be heated for two one-hour periods every day (10-11am and 2-3pm) so that the church is more comfortable if people wish to make use of the space for private prayer.

Please continue to look after yourself. If you want to talk, please pick up the phone and call. God bless. Revd David
